Economics is the social science which studies economic activity: how people make choices to get what they want. It has been defined as "the study of scarcity and choice" and is basically about the choices people make. It also studies what affects the production, distribution and consumption of goods and services in an economy.. Investment and income relate to economics.

I am currently using the Krugman and Wells text (for Micro Principles), largely because it reads in many parts like a story. I did not find many spots where I felt students would be confused, other than one spot in chapter 1, where a good is defined as "scarce" if it has alternative uses, such as air which we can either breathe or pollute. In other words, a good is scarce if it is limited. In ...

Paul Krugman e Robin Wells notam que "a mão invisível não é sempre nossa aliada". [28] Uma falha de mercado é um situação na qual o mercado não consegue a alocação óptima dos recursos económicos e dos bens e serviços. Isso pode acontecer, por exemplo, no caso de um monopólio (ou de um cartel), ou de uma situação em que coexistam desemprego e falta de mão de obra, ou ainda a ...
